Who should attend:

- This workshop series is for parents/caregivers who have young children.
- Parents/caregivers who want fun ideas of how to raise children with the values they hold dear.

What to expect:

- Children are welcome to attend. A childminder will be available to support their care during the session, but they will be in the same space.
- Parents/caregivers will meet with 2 facilitators.
- Facilitators will share stories, and provide fun ideas to promote early literacy and how to use stories to guide your child.
- Active participation is optional - listening is participating!
- Come as you are! Come as you can!
